Subject :— Amendment of the Rule 12A and inserting of Rule 12B of the Jammu and Kashmir Public Service Commission (Conduct of Examinations) Rules, 2005.

Reference :— PSC Decision under Agenda Item No. 2.2 taken in 2nd meeting held on 06-08-2015.

Notification No. PSC/Exam/2015/12

Dated 13-08-2015.

It is hereby notified for the information of the general public that the existing Rule 12A of the Jammu and Kashmir Public Service Commission (Conduct of Examinations) Rules, 2005 shall be substituted as under :—

12 A:— Detection of wrong Question/Answers/Keys procedure for Rectification and Evaluation.

- (a) During the course of examination, if it is revealed on scrutiny or in consequences of an representation made by the examinee(s) that :—
 - i. the question paper has printing errors, misprint or that the material printed is not legible ;
 - ii. the question(s) have been repeated ; and
 - iii. the question(s) answer(s)/part thereof have escaped printing and the serial numbers have in consequence been disturbed.

The matter shall immediately be reported to the Controller of Examinations who on verification of the report shall aauthorize the rectification of the error through an on spot announcement in all the examination centres for which a certificate of rectification shall be recorded by the Supervisor concerned and forwarded to the Controller of Examinations for record ;

- (b) If the scrutiny of the question paper by the invigilation staff, officials/officers of the Examination Wing of the Commission or on a representation received from the candidates within three days commencing from the day following the day of conduct of examination in that paper, it is prima facie found that :—
 - i. the formulation/text of the question is admissible to different interpretations because of vagueness ;
 - ii. the question(s) recorded in the paper is incomplete ;
 - iii. the question(s) is out of syllabus notified for the purpose ;
 - iv. that all the options recorded vis-a-vis a question are wrong ;
 - v. that more than one options recorded are correct ; and

The Controller of Examinations shall in that eventuality refer all these representations to a team of experts constituted with the approval of the Chairman for the purpose. The team shall comprise not less than two experts of eminence in the subject and their findings shall be final.

- (c) In case the team of the experts confirm the incorrectness of the questions/answers/options/keys, the concerned questions shall be deleted from the paper and the marks allocated therefore shall be redistributed equally amongst the rest of the questions on pro rata basis to ensure that the marks allocated for the question paper as a whole remain unchanged :

Provided that, where the number of question so to be deleted exceeds 10% of the total number of questions in that paper, the examination shall be cancelled and fresh examination in that paper shall be held.

Further Rule 12B shall be insert as under—

- 12 B. (i) The Controller of Examinations will release the key of question paper preferably immediately after the conclusion of the Examination/Test or on the working day following the day of the test. The keys will be uploaded on the website of the Commission.

- (ii) The candidates can represent to the Controller of Examinations if they feel that the official key to any of the question(s) is/are wrong within three days from the day of notification of key.
- (iii) The Controller of Examinations after scrutiny of all such representations shall refer them to a Committee of two experts in the relevant subject. This committee shall be formed with the approval of the Chairman. In case of General Studies Paper the questions will be referred to the subject experts of the field relevant to the question (e. g. a question in History will be referred to an expert in the History). The opinion of the expert committee shall be final. The Controller of Examinations shall accordingly finalize the key(s) of relevant question(s) and notified the same for evaluation as well as the information of the examinees.

Note :—This shall come into force with immediate effect.

Notifications, Notices and Orders by Heads of Departments.

GOVERNMENT OF JAMMU AND KASHMIR,
INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL-CUM-LABOUR COURT,
SRINAGAR/JAMMU.

File No. 157/LC.

Date of Institution : 08-03-2010.

Date of Award : 16-07-2015.

Major Singh S/o Suneel Singh, Village Prithi Pur, P. O. Bishnah, District
Jammu C/o BMS Office, Prade, Jammu.

Petitioner

Versus

Factory Manager, M/s. Reckitt Benckiser (India) Ltd., Lane No. 2, Industrial Complex, Bari Brahmana, District Samba.

Respondent

AR for the petitioner is present.

AR for the respondent is present.

AWARD

1. Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act (herein referred to as Act), envisages that where the appropriate Government is of the opinion that any industrial dispute exists or apprehended, it may at any time in writing referred to the dispute or any matter appearing to be connected with or relevant to the dispute to the Industrial Tribunal or the Labour Court for adjudication.

2. The authority identified by the State Government under the Act while having sufficient compliance with the provision of Act has made a reference to this tribunal vide SRO No. 85 on dated 2nd of March, 2010 for adjudication and passing an appropriate order. The reference made by the Government broadly and pointedly after having proper consideration by the Reconciliation Officer. The Government is of the opinion that industrial dispute exists between Major Singh V/s. M/s. Reckitt Benckiser India Ltd., Phase-1, Lane No. 2, Bari Brahmana, Samba. So in exercise of powers conferred by clause (C) of sub-section (1) of the section 10 of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. The Government referred this dispute for adjudication on the following issues :—

- i. Whether the termination of service of Shri Major Singh is legally justified ?
- ii. If not, to what relief is entitled ?

3. Fundamentally and primarily reference which made by the authority to this tribunal is based on report submitted by the Conciliation Officer.

4. On receiving the reference from the Government this tribunal has issued the notices to both sides for filing the claims and objections from other side. Petitioner appeared to through authorized representative and filed claims of the petitioner in the dispute.

5. Petitioner in his claim alleged that he joined the service with the factory on 16-07-2004 as security guard remained in continuous in-service till the termination. The alleged resignation letter dated 27-04-2007 was not genuine he challenged the validity and genuineness of resignation which obtained by the respondent, by fraud and under threat. He remained in-service for about three years and was getting Rs. 3310/- at the time of termination. On 27-04-2007 he was on duty, Shri Anjan Kumar Maji called him in his office and asked him to submit resignation in writing with the wording "Tumhare Ghar Ke Halat Thiek Nehi Hain" and Ravinder Singh an employee of factory was sitting with him and on the dictation of the Manager, Anjan Kumar he wrote a resignation letter of Major Singh after that got signature of workman on the alleged resignation along with the signature of Manager, Anjan Kumar Maji and Ravinder Singh. There was no occasion to resign from service but factory manager committed a fraud with him and this resignation was not voluntary and obtained with fraud. He is covered under EST Scheme and is Insurance No. 148038 and also covered under PPF Scheme. Petitioner as approached so many times to the respondent for duty but he refused and after that he approached Labour Commissioner but the respondent does not allow him to perform the duty even the Labour Officer, Jammu wrote to the employer. Resignation was not voluntary but obtained by fraud. Therefore, being violation of section 25-F of the I. D. Act, 1947. There was no misconduct against him there was no charge-sheet and inquiry against him. Such termination is bad in the eye of law and not sustainable. No payment of retrenchment compensation has been made. So finally prayed that such type of termination from services on 01-05-2007 may kindly be set aside.

6. Respondent has filed the reply to the statement of claims alleging him that statement of claim is frivolous not also maintainable it is vexatious and without any merit. It is an abuse of the process of law and based on misleading and false allegations. In equity and in law the said cause of action does not exit qua answering the respondent. The claim, on the short ground is liable to be dismissed. Present dispute raised by petitioner is not maintainable being not an industrial dispute as defined in section 2(A) of section 2(K) of the Industrial Disputes Act because applicant of his own submitted the resignation letter on 27-04-2007. In view of the request received from the claimant respondent management accepted the resignation and relieved him from the services and the claimant also received all his dues in full and final settlement. So claim is liable to be rejected. Claims being after thought and attempt to rewind the process which has already got concluded. After the claimant resign from his services which was accepted by the management and the amount in full and final settlement were paid to the petitioner. The Government has made a reference to this court in mechanical manner without application of mind reference does not reflect the contention of respondent management that the claimant resigns from his service and received his dues from the respondent. In views of the terms of the reference as made without prejudices that the respondent management has terminated the services of the claimant in any case not the real dispute between the parties. As the relationship of employer and employees between the claimant and respondent came to an end. As same has been accepted by the claimant being correct, because claimant has approached EPF authority representing that he has ceased to be an employee of the respondent and received all payment. In view of the same claim is not maintainable and is liable to be rejected.

7. In para-wise reply stated that statement of claim is vague, after thought, ill conceived, misconceived and are denied. It is not fact that resignation dated 27-04-2007 is not genuine. The claim is after thought raised all these allegation with ulterior motive to harass and extort money from the management which cannot be under law. When the workman has duly resigned from the service and received the all payment in full and final settlement including the statutory dues from the provident fund authority, he is estopped from filing the present claim. At the time of resignation claimant was drawing the salary Rs. 2000/- per month not 2200/- as alleged. The story putforth by the claimant is pigment of imagination false, frivolous and fabricated. It is denied that claimant was made to sign the resignation letter but he did not know under which circumstances are as alleged. It is reiterated that the claimant voluntarily on his own submitted the resignation which was duly accepted and claimant received full and final dues pursuance of which the relation of the employer and employee came to an end. It is not fact that manager of the factory has procured his resignation by fraud or inducement. It is all fabricated and frivolous story prepared by the petitioner. It is denied that services of the claimant were terminated by the management. It is denied that management has contravened any provision of law as alleged. There is no question of issuing charge-sheet or inquiry when petitioner himself resigns from the service.

8. The claimant also filed rejoinder to the objections alleging in that the objections are totally wrong, baseless and therefore emphatically denied and same may be rejected. There was no circumstances for which petitioner have voluntarily resigned as alleged in the objections. As such resignation is not genuine. Workman has not taken any full and final payment as alleged by the respondent. This is fact that he has been terminated from the service. The respondent has committed illegality when the alleged respondent took resignation. In the rejoinder no new fact has been brought to notice but same has been denied.

9. The claim of the petitioner as reflected in the conciliation proceedings and projected by the petitioner are as that factory manager obtained resignation on 27-04-2007 with malice mentality and with fraud as there was no occasion for workman to give resignation. He was working with the factory as security guard and remained in-service continuously till termination from the service on 01-05-2007 on the ground of alleged resignation which is not genuine and proper under law. On 27-04-2007 he was on duty manager called him in his office and asked him to submit his resignation with the wording "Tumhare Ghar Ke Halat Thiek Nehi Hain". This resignation was written by Ravinder Singh on the dictation of manager of factory and after that petitioner was asked to sign, which he signed. This letter was totally wrong, illegal and not proper as it was obtained by fraud. It was illegal retrenchment being violation of section 25-F of the I. D. Act actually they have terminated the employee illegally. Applicant approached so many times to factory manager for duty but he has not allowed him to work. Other party submitted that employee has submitted his resignation at his own and also obtained the full and final payment from respondent as such the relationship of employee and employer came to an end. So, Conciliation Officer fails to settle the matter and submitted the failure report to the Government. The Government vide its SRO-85 dated 2nd March, 2010 referred the dispute to this tribunal.

10. To prove the case of the parties they have been directed to lead their evidence. Petitioner Major Singh himself submitted a statement on affidavit and affidavit of Shri Ravinder Singh as his witness. Whereas, the respondent has examined Ajay Sharma witness only. It is profitable to reproduced brief resume of statement of witnesses.

11. Petitioner Major Singh stated on affidavit duly sworn that he joined the company on 16-10-2004 as security guard and his salary was Rs. 3310/- p. m. in the month of April, 2007. There was no misconduct against him and his service record neat and clean. No notice was given before termination. No retrenchment compensation was paid under section 25-F of I. D. Act, 1947. On 27-04-2007 he was called by the Factory Manager, Anjan Kumar in his office and asked him to give resignation. Another employee namely Ravinder Singh was also sitting there who has been directed by the factory manager to write petitioner resignation. Contents of the letter was not explain to him so he has not given any resignation voluntary. Management has committed a fraud with him. He approached to the Labour Minister about termination from the service. His service was controlled and supervise by the management after that they have not taken him in the factory. He was cross-examined by other side and in cross-examination stated that he is studied up to 10th label he knows the Hindi and Urdu. His resignation was written someone else it was written in Hindi he does not known who has written the resignation. He does not know whether resignation was written by Ravinder Singh or not. Though Ravinder Singh was impressing upon him to sign the resignation and as such the he has signed under pressure and contents of the resignation was not read over to him. Copy of the resignation shown to the witness same is admitted by him. Thought contents are not correct. When he has signed the resignation Anjan Mahajan and Ravinder Singh was present and in his presence they have also signed on resignation. He has not filed any complain with the Police Department that management has got his signature on resignation forcefully or fraudulently. And after that he come back home and again went to the factory on 01-05-2007 but they have not allowed him to enter the factory. He has not initiated any proceeding management has given him Rs. 6000/- after filing the petition. But he is not remembering when he files the petition and when he receives the money.

12. P. W. Ravinder Singh stated on in affidavit that he was permanent employee of the respondent factory. He remained in service upto 2011. He knows the Major Singh who joined the service in factory in 2004 and remained in-service till 2007. There was no misconduct against the petitioner. No compensation were paid under section 25-F. He was not charge-sheeted or any inquiry was conducted against him on 27-04-2011. Factory Manager, Anjan Kumar called the Major Singh in his office and asked him to give resignation letter with the wording “Tumhare Ghar Ke Halat Thiek Nehi Hain” Factory Manager asked the P. W. to write his resignation letter and on his dictation he wrote the resignation after that Major Singh was asked to sign, who sign the same in his presence. But content of resignation was not read over to Major Singh. He has also signed as witness factory manager got resignation with fraud. On cross-examination stated that he was also working in the same factory earlier he was not knowing Major Singh. This is correct that Major Singh is hindi knowing but resignation was not written by him. This resignation was written by him and he indentifies his signature. This signature was affixed on the direction of manager. He knew that he was committing a wrong. He has not impressed Major Singh not to sign the resignation but Major Singh has signed the resignation at his own. This is not correct that Major Singh was influenced or forced to sign. He has no knowledge that Major Singh has received the balance amount or not. He has no connection after that with Major Singh. When he came out from the factory he abuses him. He has committed a crime and ready to receive any punishment. He has not help the Major Singh for litigation at that time there was no trade union.

13. On rebuttal respondent has examined only one witness namely Ajay Kumar Sharma on affidavit. He stated that he is employed as HR Management of the officer and so he is conversant with the facts. Claimant Major Singh who was employed with the respondent of his own submittted the resignation letter on 27-04-2007 whereby he resigns from his service. The resignation letter dated 27-04-2007 is marked as EXMW1/1. In view of the request respondents accepted the resignation and relieved him from his service and claimant also received all his dues in full and final settlement. A copy of documents related to receipt the full and final dues is marked as EXMW1/2. So, the relationship of the employer and employee came to an end. The claimant joined the employment on 01-05-2005 and was drawing a salary of Rs. 2000/- p. m. at the time of ceasing to be employed with the respondent. This is totally incorrect that claimant has been cheated or unfair labour practice as alleged. This is also not correct that resignation was obtained by fraud as alleged by the petitioner. On cross-examination stated that company has two units one at Bari Brahmana other is that Samba. He has joined the service in the company on 01-04-2014. He is working at Samba. He is unable to depose who was the manager in 2007 at Bari Brahmana Unit. As per office record petitioner Major Singh was working from May, 2005 he does not know who was store keeper in the year 2004. As per office record petitioner resignation is of 27-04-2007. He does not know whether petitioner was duty on that day or not. He can spoke after checking the record. As per law factory management has to maintain the salary register and attendance register. This is correct that on resignation there was not signature of any factory official.

14. This is the wholesome and substance of the both side evidence which produced by them during the proceeding.

15. I have thoughtfully considered argument advanced by the representative of the parties and had a minutes study and appreciation of the evidence both oral as well as documentary available on the file.

16. AR for petitioner argued that the petitioner had been working as security guard in the respondent establishment since 2004. He was performing duty to the satisfaction of the respondent. Petitioner was called by the manager of the factory on 27-04-2007 in his office and obtained a resignation letter by fraud. He was terminated from the service illegally without any charge-sheet. Petitioner was getting Rs. 3310/- per month at that time. The Factory Manager, Anjan Maji asked the petitioner to give resignation and factory manager directed to Shri Ravinder Singh witness to write his resignation with the wording "Tumhare Ghar Ki Halat Thiek Nehi Hain". Contents of resignation were not explained to the petitioner. Resignation having been obtained on the direction of authority factory manager using his colorable power with mala fide intention must be holding wholly illegal. Resignation when not voluntary but obtained by pressure and force will amount to illegal termination from the service. It is well settled principle of law that a resignation obtained by pressure or force will amount to termination of service and resignation accepted on the same date not convey to the petitioner is amount to illegal termination.

17. On the other hand AR for respondent stress that employee has resigned from his service vide his letter dated 27-04-2007 to be effective from 1st May, 2007 on his own. As requested by the claimant resignation was accepted by the respondent and claimant also received his full and final dues on 9th of June, 2007. Once the resignation tendered by the claimant was accepted by the respondent and he was relieved from his services. The relationship of employer and employee came to an end. In case the employee raises the serious allegation that the resignation was not submitted voluntarily but under coercion, burden shall squarely vest with the claimant to substantiate the same and employer cannot be asked to prove the genuineness of the resignation. Once the resignation letter submitted by the claimant has been accepted by the management and claimant accepted his full and final dues. The process concluded and relationship of employer and employee came to an end.

18. This court has to return the findings within in circumscribe limits of the term of the reference identified by the competent authority and we are not suppose to travel beyond the terms set up for adjudication. But is required to be settled precisely is to be finding out legality or otherwise action of the respondent management in terminating the services of the petitioner by the respondent is legally valid or not. In case where the action was taken by the respondent on a resignation, whether such resignation is voluntarily or obtained by fraud.

19. Briefly petitioner was employee of the factory which definitely covered under section 2 (s) of Industrial Disputes Act, 1948 and parties have not disputed on this point. The grievances of the petitioner is as that while he was on duty and called by the Manager, Anjan Maji in his office in presence of one Ravinder Singh and obtained his resignation by fraud, forcefully. He was asked to sign on a paper which was not written by him and he signed the same but contents are not explained to him. Later on he came to know about the resignation. This is fact that burden of proof lies on the claimant. And to prove this aspect in his own deposition admitted that he is a literate person he knows hindi but he does not know english. Resignation was written by PW Ravinder Singh or not, he does not know.

But it was written in hindi. And PW Ravinder Singh was stressing him to sign the resignation so he was threatened so he signed the resignation. He admitted his signature on the resignation letter though denied the content. In his presence Ravinder Singh has also put his signature. He has not reported anywhere about the pressure even in police. He has also admitted in his deposition that he has received Rs. 6,000/- later on from the management. So from his own statement it is established that there was no pressure from the management to sign the resignation which was written in his presence.

20. In terms of evidence on record adduced by the petitioner comprises of one PW Ravinder Singh who has also deposed in the court that resignation was written by him but it was signed by the petitioner Major Singh at his own. Major Singh was also hindi knowing. He has not explained to the petitioner not to sign the resignation. He denied any pressure was on Major Singh when he signed. After that he has no connection with the Major Singh though at that time he was abusing him while coming out from the factory. Its mean petitioner has a complete knowledge of the resignation. There is nothing in the evidence which shows that petitioner was under threat or his signature was obtained by force or under pressure. Petitioner evidence is not conclusive about any pressure. Neither after that he reported about force or pressure in police or before any authority established by law.

21. An other plea raise by the respondent that petitioner has receive full and final payment also from them. The relationship of employer and employee came to an end. But this is fact that they have paid 6,000/- rupees as full and final settlement of his dues on 09-06-2007 and petitioner remained silent about one and half year after that he has raised by demand notice before the Conciliation Officer. As such petitioner has in fact received the full and final amount due to the M/s. Reckitt Benckiser. In support of my contention I made reliance on latest authority of Karnataka High Court 2015 LLR page 156, Para 5 and 6 :—

“Resignation when pleaded by the workman is not maintainable workman opted VRS. Received Rs. 1,00,000/-. He withdrew the PF amount on the premise that his resignation was accepted. He joined another establishment. After about 8 months he again joined the management. After 7 years he tendered resignation. Letter of acceptance of resignation was issued. He was relieved by way of settlement. He was paid Rs. 1,00,000/- through account payee cheque which he had encashed without protest. He raised an industrial dispute raising allegations that his signature was taken forcibly on the documents including resignation letter. Labour Court rejected his claim on appreciation of evidence and documents on record. Workman challenged the Award by filing writ petition. Held claim of the workman has been rejected due to lack of evidence. Writ court is having no jurisdiction to reappreciate the evidence when they are not perverse. Hence, writ petition is dismissed.

Validity of workman tendered his resignation. Letter of acceptance of resignation was received by him without protest. Full and final payment was paid through account payee cheque which the workman got encashed. Plea that resignation letter was force fully obtained by the management is not sustainable. Validity of such a resignation cannot be questioned later on”.

22. In the instant case petitioners evidence is not convincing to the fact that resignation was obtained forcefully or by fraud or under pressure by the management. On appreciation of petitioner evidence it has no where come that there was a threat, pressure or undue influence on the petitioner to sign the resignation letter. So we cannot say that petitioner signed the resignation under compulsion. If we presume that there was any pressure on that day but he remain silent for one and half year about allegedly illegal act of the respondent. Petitioner has not reported any matter before the police with regard to forced signature got by the manager. Petitioner has also admitted in his own deposition that he has received the full and final amount. So, it is clearly established that petitioner resignation is voluntarily. It is not under pressure or obtained by force.

23. In view of the above, discussion I hold petitioner termination from the service is legally justified. Because he remains failure to prove that his resignation obtained by fraud, pressure or forced. And petitioner has also received full and final amount of settlement of his dues toward Reckitt Benckiser. As such he is not entitled for relief prayed by him. Hence, reference is decided against petitioner and in favour of respondent.

24. Accordingly an award is passed in favour of respondent and against the petitioner. Copy of the award be sent to the Government of J&K through its Commissioner/Secretary, Labour Department for information and for publication in the Government Gazette. File shall consign to record after its due completion.
